The credit period granted for sales rendered is 30 to 90 days. Our Group does not charge any interests or impose any late payment charges on outstanding sums in view of the long-standing business relationship with the relevant parties.

Our Group will continue its policy to recover all outstanding debts by issuing regular reminder letters to be followed up by regular contact and phone calls with the debtors, including Related Parties, failing which legal action may be initiated to recover the debts (including court action and/or arbitration). Our Board actively monitors the outstanding overdue amount and is of the opinion that the above-mentioned outstanding sums, net of allowance for impairment losses, are recoverable.

2.5 Review procedures in relation to RRPT

Our Company has established procedures for our Group to ensure that the RRPTs are undertaken on an arm's length basis, on normal commercial terms which are not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company.

To monitor the RRPT, the procedures established by our Company are as follows:

- (i) a list of Related Parties is circulated by our Company to notify that all RRPT are required to be undertaken on an arm's length basis, based on normal commercial terms which are not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company;
- (ii) a summary of all RPT, including RRPT, is tabled to the Audit Committee every quarter for notation. If a member of the Audit Committee has an interest in an RPT/RRPT, as the case may be, he/she shall abstain from any deliberations by the Audit Committee in respect of such RPT/RRPT;
- (iii) at least 2 other contemporaneous transactions with unrelated third parties for similar products or services and/or quantities will be used for comparison, whenever possible, to determine whether the price and terms offered to/by the Related Parties are fair and reasonable and comparable to those offered to/by other unrelated third parties for the same or substantially similar type of produces/services and/or quantities. If quotations or comparative pricing from unrelated third parties cannot be obtained, the price and terms of the RRPT will be in accordance with applicable industry norms, prevailing commercial rates and at rates not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company;

- (iv) for the award of contracts on a turnkey or PDP basis, an independent cost consultant/quantity surveyor will be appointed to review the cost to ensure that the contracts are undertaken based on normal commercial terms;
- (v) proper records will be maintained by our Company to capture all RRPT entered into pursuant to the Proposed RRPT Mandate to ensure that relevant approvals have been obtained and review procedures for such transactions are adhered to;
- (vi) the Audit Committee shall review the internal audit reports to ascertain that the guidelines and procedures established to monitor RRPT have been complied with. If the Audit Committee is of the view that the abovementioned procedures are no longer sufficient to ensure that the RRPT are undertaken on an arm's length basis, based on normal commercial terms which are not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company, the Audit Committee shall have the discretion to request for additional procedures to be imposed on all the RRPT;
- (vii) all RRPT with a value equal to or exceeding RM1 million per transaction or where any one of the percentage ratios is 1% or more, whichever is higher, are reviewed and approved by the Audit Committee and the Board to ensure compliance with the Listing Requirements on RRPT. RRPT below RM1 million or with a percentage ratio of less than 1% are reviewed and authorised by different personnel of managerial level;
- (viii) the internal auditors shall periodically review the guidelines and procedures for all RRPT entered into pursuant to the Proposed RRPT Mandate to ensure that relevant approvals have been obtained, ensure procedures for such transactions are adhered to and ascertain that the guidelines established to monitor RRPT have been complied with;
- (ix) the Interested Director in the RRPT must abstain from the Board's deliberation and voting on the relevant resolution for the RRPT at the Board meetings. The Interested Director must inform the Board, of the details of the nature and extent of his interest, including all matters in relation to the proposed RRPT that he is aware or should reasonably be aware of, which is not in the best interest of our Company; and
- (x) the Interested Major Shareholders or Persons Connected with them must not vote at the general meeting on the ordinary resolution pertaining to the Proposed RRPT Mandate. It is the duty of the Interested Directors and Interested Major Shareholders to ensure that Persons Connected with them abstain from voting on the ordinary resolution pertaining to the Proposed RRPT Mandate.

2.6 Audit Committee's Statement

The Audit Committee is of the view that:

- (i) the procedures as set out in Section 2.5 of this Circular are sufficient to ensure that the RRPT are undertaken on an arm's length basis, based on normal commercial terms which are not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company; and
- (ii) Our Company has in place adequate procedures and processes to monitor, track and identify RRPT in a timely and orderly manner. Such procedures and processes will be reviewed by the Audit Committee and/or the management staff on a yearly basis or as and when required.

3. RATIONALE AND BENEFITS OF THE PROPOSED RRPT MANDATE

The RRPT referred to in Section 2.3 of this Circular is intended to meet the business needs of our Group on the best possible terms and for our Group to explore beneficial business opportunities with the Related Parties.

The Proposed RRPT Mandate will also:

- (i) facilitate transactions entered into in the ordinary course of business of our Group which are transacted from time to time with the Related Parties provided that such transactions are undertaken on an arm's length basis, based on normal commercial terms which are not more favourable to the Related Parties than those generally available to the public and are not detrimental to the interests of minority shareholders of our Company;
- (ii) eliminate the need to make announcements to Bursa Securities or to convene separate general meetings from time to time to seek our shareholders' approval as and when RRPT with the Related Parties arise. This will reduce the associated expenses, improve administrative efficiency and allow manpower, resources and time to be better channelled towards achieving other corporate objectives; and
- (iii) enable our Group to enter into RRPT expediently as these transactions are time-sensitive and confidential in nature. Hence, it may be impractical to seek our shareholders' approval on a case-by-case basis before entering into such transactions.

In view of the foregoing, the Proposed RRPT Mandate, if approved, will substantially reduce administrative time, inconvenience and expenses for our Company. This will thereafter allow our Company to channel more resources towards meeting our Group's corporate objectives and realise business opportunities, as and when they become available.

4. VALIDITY PERIOD FOR THE PROPOSED RRPT MANDATE

The ordinary resolution pertaining to the Proposed RRPT Mandate, if approved by our shareholders at the forthcoming 27th AGM, shall take effect from 12 June 2024 and will continue to be in force until:

- (i) the conclusion of the next AGM at which time the mandate will lapse, unless by a resolution passed at the next AGM, the mandate is renewed;
- (ii) the expiration of the period within which the next AGM is required to be held pursuant to Section 340(2) of the Act (but shall not extend to such extension as may be allowed pursuant to Section 340(4) of the Act); or
- (iii) the mandate is revoked or varied by a resolution passed by our shareholders in a general meeting, whichever is the earlier.

5. EFFECTS OF THE PROPOSED RRPT MANDATE

The Proposed RRPT Mandate will not have any material effect on the issued share capital, substantial shareholders' shareholdings, NAV, gearing and EPS of our Company.
